

Tally Slip
2017

Voting will take place during National Library Week, April 9-15, 2017

Due By : April 17, 2017

Please Put Total Votes For Each Book, Include Home School Votes

- ___ Speak, Laurie Halse Anderson
- ___ The Thing About Jellyfish, Ali Benjamin
- ___ The Leveller, Julia Durango
- ___ The Walk On, John Feinstein
- ___ Roller Girl, Victoria Jamieson
- ___ The Skeleton Tree, Ian Lawrence
- ___ Keepers of the Labyrinth, Erin Moulton
- ___ A Night Divided, Jennifer Nielsen
- ___ The Seventh Most Important Thing
Shelley Pearsall
- ___ The Hired Girl, Laura Amy Schlitz
- ___ The Rules of Survival, Nancy Werlin
- ___ Everything, Everything, Nicola Yoon

Your Library or School Name _____ Total Votes Cast _____

Your Town Name _____

You must send in votes to apply to host the winner....

Would your school be interested in hosting an author acceptance visit sometime in the fall?

YES _____ NO _____ If so, who would the contact be? Name _____

Phone: _____ E: mail _____

What Venue would it be held in? _____

Number it can accommodate? _____ # Guests? _____

In the past, the local school has defrayed any author costs (if any). What range of costs could you support for an author visit? _____ (free authors would go to needy schools who can't afford anything...$0 is ok if that is your realistic budget)

Email your tally slip counts by April 17 to

Yvette Couser, email ycouser@merrimacklibrary.org

Merrimack Public Library, 470 DW Highway, Merrimack. VAN STOP: MERRIMACK