The Weekenders

by Mary Kay Andrews

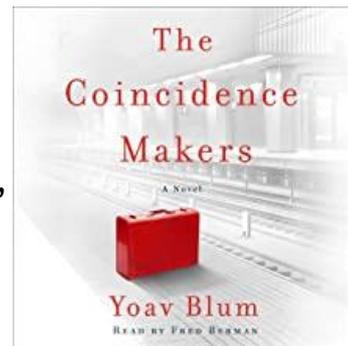

Served with papers that her much-loved island home on idyllic Belle Isle is being foreclosed and that her husband has abandoned her, Riley turns for help to her friends, who she discovers are harboring their own secrets.

The Coincidence Makers

by Yoav Blum

In this genre-bending audiobook from bestselling Israeli author Yoav Blum, there is no such thing as chance and every action is carefully executed by highly trained agents. Listeners will never look at coincidences the same way again.

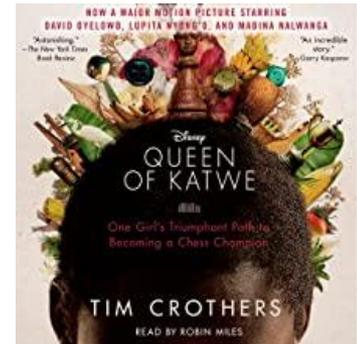

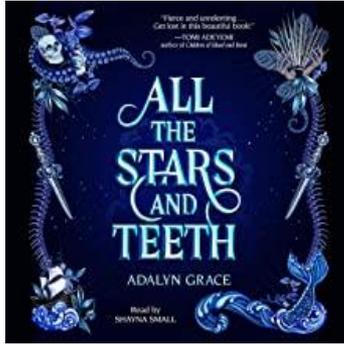

Pretty Things by Janelle Brown

To save her mother, a con artist who hustled to give her a decent childhood, Nina must run her most audacious, dangerous scam yet that involves a privileged young heiress as they both try to survive the greatest game of deceit and destruction they will ever play.

The Queen of Katwe by Tim Crothers

The astonishing true story of Phiona Mutesi, a teenager from the slums of Kampala, Uganda, who, inspired by an unlikely mentor, a war refugee turned missionary, becomes an international chess champion.

All the Stars and Teeth

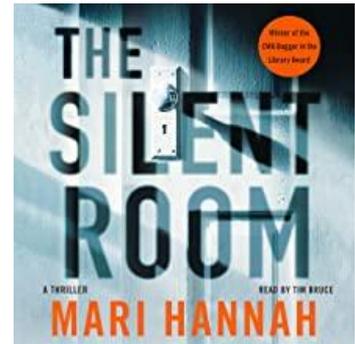

by Adalyn Grace

Raised in the arts of royal magic as heir to the throne of her island kingdom, Amora Montara is forced to flee in the wake of a spell gone wrong and teams up with a mysterious pirate to prove her worthiness to rule.

The Silent Room

by Mari Hannah

Working diligently to clear his former boss of corruption charges, Detective Sergeant Matthew Ryan struggles to uncover the truth when his boss disappears amid suspicions that he escaped, was abducted, or worse.

The Queen's Secret

by Karen Harper

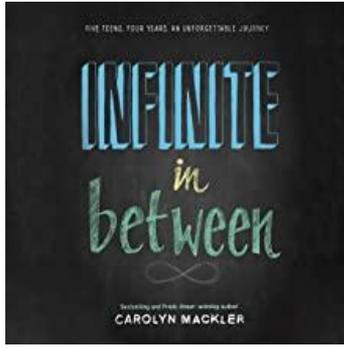

Endearing herself to the British people with her kindness and strength, Elizabeth the Queen Mother, the wife of George VI and mother of a future Elizabeth II, orchestrates Edward VIII's exile while hiding damaging secrets.

#IMomSoHard

by Kristin Hensley & Jen Smedley

The creative forces behind the popular comedy shows and videos talk about "mom life" with humor and biting honesty, covering post-partum depression, bullying, sex after marriage, Mom-bods and their obsession with a Game of Thrones character.

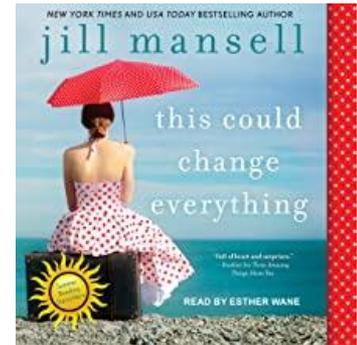

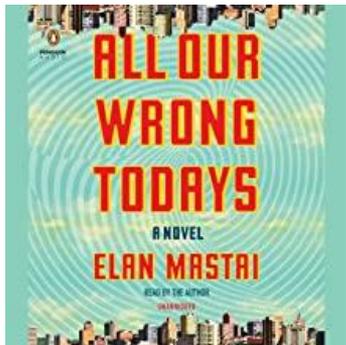

Infinite in Between by Carolyn Mackler

Five students who meet in freshman orientation agree to write notes to their future selves and promise to reunite in exactly four years when they are ready to graduate from high school.

This Could Change Everything by Jill Mansell

All it takes is one email to end her relationship, get her kicked out of her apartment, and just about ruin her life. Essie Phillips never meant for her private rant about her boss to be sent to everyone in her address book, but as soon as it goes viral, her life as she knows it is over.

All Our Wrong Todays

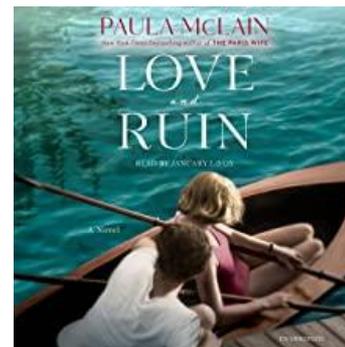

by Elan Mastai

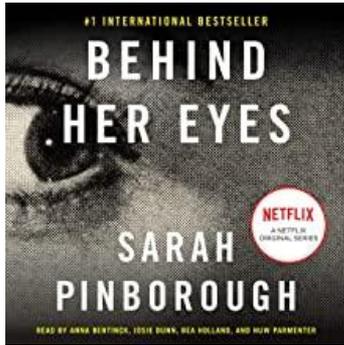

Living in an alternate world of flying cars, moon bases and plentiful food, aimless Tom Barren is blindsided by an accident of fate that leads to a time-travel mishap that lands him in our less-than-ideal 2016, where he discovers wonderful unexpected versions of his own life.

Love and Ruin

by Paula McClain

The bestselling author of The Paris Wife returns to the subject of Ernest Hemingway in a novel about his passionate, stormy marriage to Martha Gellhorn, a fiercely independent, ambitious young woman who would become one of the greatest war correspondents of the twentieth century.

Behind Her Eyes

by Sarah Pinborough

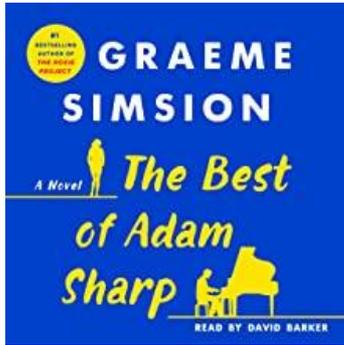

The secretary of a successful psychiatrist is drawn into the seemingly picture-perfect life of her boss and his wife before discovering a complex web of controlling behaviors and secrets that gradually reveal profound and dangerous flaws in the couple's relationship.

The Girl Who Knew Too Much

by Amanda Quick

When rookie reporter Irene Glasson discovers the body of an actress at the bottom of a California hotel pool, she investigates and finds herself drawn to Oliver, a former magician, as the mystery deepens and more women die by drowning.

The Best of Adam Sharp

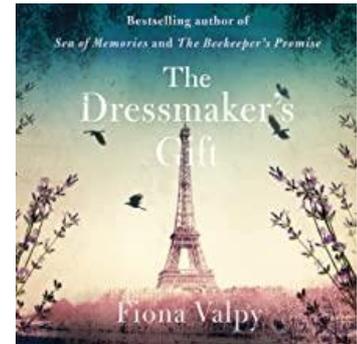

by Graeme Simsion

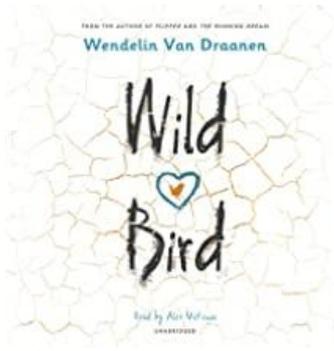

Despite his happiness, Adam Sharp wonders how different his life might have been if he hadn't let Angelina Brown, a strong-willed actress, walk away more than twenty years ago.

The Dressmaker's Gift

by Fiona Valpy

Paris, 1940. With the city occupied by the Nazis, three young seamstresses go about their normal lives as best they can. But all three are hiding secrets.

Wild Bird by Wendelin Van Draanen

In her most incisive and insightful book yet, Wendelin Van Draanen, award-winning author of The Running Dream and Flipped, offers a remarkable portrait of a girl who has hit rock bottom, but begins a climb back to herself at a wilderness survival camp in the desert.

Caste : The Origins of Our Discontents by Isabel Wilkerson

The Pulitzer Prize-winning author of The Warmth of Other Suns identifies the qualifying characteristics of historical caste systems to reveal how a rigid hierarchy of human rankings, enforced by religious views, heritage and stigma, impact everyday American lives.
